

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Our Company has recently discovered several cases of "Daikin" air-conditioners with the serial numbers removed or modified being sold in the Hong Kong market.

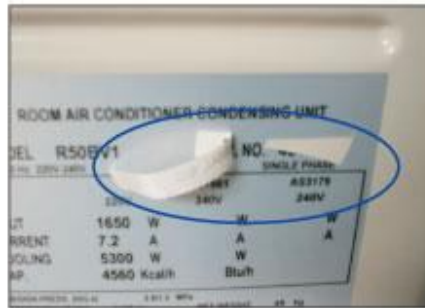

In view that the serial numbers of such air-conditioners have been removed or modified, our Company is unable to identify whether these air-conditioners are or are not genuine "Daikin" products. Hence, notice is hereby solemnly given that our Company will not provide or arrange for spare parts, maintenance and after sales service in respect of any "Daikin" air-conditioners the serial numbers of which have been removed or modified.

In order to avoid any unnecessary prejudice, consumers are hereby advised, when purchasing a "Daikin" product, to ensure that it comes with the original serial number. Below are 6 pictures showing air-conditioners with removed or modified serial numbers. Thank you for your kind attention.
